

Level 3 Award in Geotechnical Knowledge for Quarrying Supervision

Who should attend?

- Supervisors
- Operatives and all personnel who require knowledge of the procedures for safe operation and inspection of excavations, tips and stockpiles **
- People who carry out geotechnical inspections in the workplace **

 - This is a technical course – if you are looking for an introduction or an awareness level of course we recommend the Geotechnical Awareness for Operatives ½ day course

Aims

To provide course members with:

- Knowledge and skills required to understand and carry out their responsibilities for the implementation of safe working procedures in relation to excavations, tips and stockpiles
- The ability to conduct workplace inspections

Content

The course includes:

- Hazards and definitions
- Causes of instability in soil slopes
- Causes of instability in rock slopes
- Causes of instability in stockpiles
- Lagoons
- Rockfall and control measures
- Geotechnical assessments
- Inspections and record keeping
- Working practices
- Legal compliance

Number of delegates: minimum 6, maximum 12

Duration and delivery: 1 day. Based in a training room.

- Short lectures
- Group discussions
- Workplace inspections' exercise

Successful completion of the course leads to a Level 3 Award in Geotechnical Knowledge for Quarrying Supervision (Vocational Qualification)

Contact details: For further details or to make a booking, contact Maggi on 0115-983-6584 or email: maggi.pelling@mpskills.co.uk

